

DOM TIVADAR SINGS & PLAYS VOL. 2 PRESS RELEASE

*****

Who is thissss guy? Making weird ol' mini albums, seagull sounds in sinister surf, punked up guitar and a dark purple bluesy- jazz feel with this new one? It's like every track is a different genre! Is this fucking 'art-rock'?

Thanks. I'm glad you asked :) Yes, something like that

For fans of - Syd Barrett, Sonic Youth, Link Wray

FUN FACTS

- Beatlesque and Bukowski fueled, Dom Tivadar's music echoes in the realm of the hungry ghosts.
  - Like an understated native cowboy, a pirate alien in smokey shadows, lunatic grit and undefined heaviness looms lofty over elements of...well, almost Velvet Underground or Frank Black veined pop-rock.
  - A strange breed indeed, sometimes sounds a little American and he used to sell his artwork in Union Square NYC
  - This is his 3rd album released on limited edition lathe cut record and he's been independently releasing music for a number of years.
  - Is 'too jazzy' for 4AD but ex-breeders management said she thought his shit was cool.
  - Once described by BBC introducing the south radio as 'filthy' .
  - Thinks free-form-gonzo-da-da-musicism is the future and there are big bucks to be had.
  - Hangs his hat in Brighton UK and has been inspiring waves of trend in underground punk-rock-youth culture at venues such as Sticky Mikes Frog Bar, The Hope & Ruin and The Bee's Mouth.
  - Dab hand with a paint brush, Jarvis Cocker and Co. once hung a painting of Dominic's in the Tate Modern.
  - 'Mr Avid Diatonic' is an anagram of Dominic Tivadar.
